Rules & Regulations for HarborFest Vendors

1. Food vendors are responsible for getting their own permits from Suffolk County Health Department. A copy of permit(s) MUST be submitted with application and be on hand at event.
2. Vendors will supply tables, tents, and displays. Tents cannot be staked down. We recommend using 20-pound weights as anchors.
3. The Chamber will provide garbage containers and refuse removal.
4. There are no electric or water connections available.
5. Set up begins at 7am and must be completed by 9am. All cars must be off Long Wharf by 9am.
6. Tents may be left up at vendor's own risk and discretion. Tents left overnight must be collapsed and weighted down.
7. Sag Harbor Chamber reserves the right to refuse or expel any vendor.
8. NO REFUNDS will be given for any reason. HarborFest is held rain or shine.
9. Payment to Sag Harbor Chamber must be cleared before September 5, 2025 for entry to Long Wharf.
10. Placement on Long Wharf is at the discretion of The Sag Harbor Chamber of Commerce - requests will be reviewed and final location confirmed by September 8, 2026

Waiver: The undersigned, a participating vendor in the Sag Harbor Chamber of Commerce HarborFest Fair on Long Wharf do hereby release the Sag Harbor Chamber of Commerce from any and all liability for personal injury, property loss, theft or damage at said Fair. The undersigned has read and agrees to the rules and regulations listed above.
